NASA Small Business Opportunities and Resources Networking Conference

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) Office of Small Business Programs (OSBP) is thrilled to have you join us for the NASA Small Business Opportunities and Resources Networking Conference. This exciting event brings together small business owners, prime contractors, and industry leaders to explore opportunities, share insights, and network.

Small businesses have always been a critical part of every NASA mission. The primary mission of the NASA OSBP is to increase the utilization of small businesses in support of the Agency's mission. These efforts encompass all federally recognized socio-economic programs.

Our goal for this conference is to provide you with a dynamic platform to learn, connect, and grow. Throughout this conference, you will have the chance to engage in an informative education session and meaningful discussions during our networking session that is designed to empower your business and enhance your professional network.

Here are a few highlights you can look forward to:

- Mission Equity Update
- Demystifying the Procurement Process at NASA
- How to Do Business with NASA
- Office of Procurement Product Service Lines Update

We encourage you to take full advantage of the conference by actively participating in our sessions, asking questions, and engaging with fellow attendees. This is a unique opportunity to gain valuable insights, exchange ideas, and forge new connections that can have a lasting impact on your business journey.

Please make sure to review the conference schedule enclosed with this program book. If you have any specific requirements or questions, our dedicated conference staff will be available to assist you at the registration desk throughout the event.

Thank you for choosing to be a part of the NASA Small Business Opportunities and Resources Networking Conference. We believe that your presence will contribute to the vibrancy of the event, and we hope this is an enriching experience for you.
